6th November 2018

Dear Parents and Carers,

Next week is Anti-Bullying week with the theme 'Choose Respect'. Children will be involved in lessons throughout the week that address issues surrounding bullying with an emphasis on children's online activity and e-safety. Odd Socks day will take place on the first day of Anti Bullying Week, Monday 12th November 2018 to help raise awareness. It's an opportunity for children to express themselves and celebrate their individuality and what makes us all unique! We would love to see as many children as we can joining in by wearing odd socks.

During this week we will also be raising money for BBC Children in Need by having our own fancy dress 'Spotacular' day which will take place on Thursday 15th November. We are asking the children to bring a donation of £1 each to take part in a non-uniform day. To fit in with the fundraising theme, we would like children to wear something spotty! Ideas include: spotty pyjamas, spotty clothes, spotty fancy dress, spotty accessories or spotty face paint. On the day, we will be learning about how the money raised will help those in need and what the charity does to support vulnerable children.

We hope you will be able to support the school is raising awareness for anti-bullying week and raising what money we can for Children in Need.

Yours Sincerely
Miss Dunkley
