Danemill Reading Challenge 2017

This year, to encourage reading for pleasure across our school, we are holding a Reading Challenge competition. I have set a number of different tasks for you to complete, and you have until June 2018 to complete them. All you (or a parent/carer) have to do is write the title of the book, the name of the author and the date that you read the book on the back of this challenge sheet. Once you have completed every task, hand it in to me and I will check it and award you with a prize for finishing the Danemill Reading Challenge 2017! Good Luck!

Mrs Ellis

You must read:

- A book that you can finish in a day
- A non-fiction book of your choice
- A funny book
- A book that is set in the future
- A book that a friend has recommended
- A book that you have read before
- A fantasy or science-fiction book
- A book that was published in 2016
- A book that a teacher has recommended
- A book that a LSA has recommended
- A book written by a female author
- A book that an adult in your family read as a child
- A book you own but have never read
- A book about a real person
- A mystery story
- A book that has an animal in the title
- A book that has a green or blue cover
- A poetry book
- A picture book
