Week 141

World Book Day today was a fantastic event; the children's outfits were all very imaginative and convincing. Lots of fun was had at the whole school assembly as the children tried to work out the identity of the numerous characters! All pupils received their £1 Book Voucher to spend on a book of their choice—happy reading!

We mentioned in last week's Newsletter that some children were given cards with challenges to encourage them to do nice things while expecting nothing in return. This week we've had evidence of lots of children demonstrating random acts of kindness and we are delighted that the scheme is yielding such lovely, positive results. Well done children—keep it up.

Mr Taylor is currently absent from school. In his absence Mrs Shingler, our Higher Level Teaching Assistant and Mr Plumb, our trainee teacher are teaching Class 5A on Mondays and Mrs Ellis will be teaching the class for the remaining four days of the week.

Have a great weekend.

*Mrs D. White—

Miss T Lawrence—Assistant Headteacher.*
