Week 89

Head Teacher's Message

This week started off with a really motivating assembly by Alim Kamera (I am leaning on a camera—ask the KS2 children!), and he really inspired the children to have belief in themselves. It was really amazing and the children left the assembly feeling that they were amazing—which they are!

We held a two minutes' silence on Wednesday in remembrance of all who died in the World Wars. We have been selling poppies and we know that we have collected a lot of money, judging by the weight of the poppy collection box. We also had our RE week, during which all the year groups learnt about different religions. This culminated in an assembly on Friday when classes fed back on their experiences. Key Stage 1 children visited the local church and found out about how we celebrate and pray in church.

Today is pyjama day for the Children in Need charity; thanks to everyone for their generous donations.

Next week is anti-bullying week and we have lots planned, including workshops given by the Police Service.

Finally I would like to reiterate that cars should not be parked on the zig-zag lines. I have approached individuals to ask them not to do this and we have been asked by the police to send details to them of any cars that regularly park on the lines.

Have a great weekend.

Catherine Winterton

NOTICEBOARD:

The maths evening to parents and carers,
scheduled for 24th November has been cancelled
and rescheduled for the spring term—
date to follow.

Several children are being collected quite late from school at the end of the day. Please could parents and carers try to be punctual when collecting their children from school.

Thank you.
