Only the best is good enough.

Danemill Primary School - 08.04.22

08.04.22

Another super week at Danemill leading us into the Easter holidays! Wednesday saw us join in with the Great British Spring Clean by having some members of our Eco-council volunteer to do a litter pick.

Mrs Hickinbottom led our Easter Bonnet competition this week. The bonnets were amazing and it must have been such fun to make. We loved sharing them with each other.

The following children received a prize:

Pre-School: Kasey, Luca and Naomi

Ladybirds: Sienna, Amelia and Bobby

Bumblebees: Isaac, Marley and Mersey

1KF: Aryan and Alice

1RP: Sylvie-Rose and Eddie

2WS: Effie and Cameron

2JC: Avaya and Ronnie

3JA: Hope and George

3HJ: Eva Mai and George

4BM: Olly and Isabelle

4LS: Sian and Freddie

5RM: Rylan and Katherine

5DH: Logan and Coen

Year 6: Jarvis and Tayla-Elise

Thank you to all that participated. Such fun was had by all.

Our sports teams ended the week on a high.

On Wednesday, our Year 3 and 4 football teams went to play at Brockington Family of Schools Tournament. Year 4 came 1st and Year 3 came 3rd.

On Thursday, our Year 5/6 Hockey team played in a tournament at Leicester Grammar. They came 3rd in the group stages, drawing 1 game and losing 2. They then went on to play a 3rd place play off and won that game 5-0. Well done to all.

Finally, we are sad to be saying 'Goodbye' to Mrs Mortimer. She has been a super addition to Danemill and we will all miss her very much as she moves over to the Fire Service.

Thank you for all of your support this term. Have a lovely break and see you on Monday 25th April.

Wider Life at Danemill

This week is the time to celebrate Jesse in Y2. He has been learning to play the piano. His Dad sent us a video which we have converted into the QR below so that you can see too!

Excellent efforts Jesse!

Don't forget to send us your pictures of your children's achievements outside of school. We love receiving them.

Reminder - Summer Fair - 24th June

How is it that time already?!
