Dear Parents and Carers

To mark the end of the First World War, we are holding two special assemblies on Wednesday 6th November – one at 9.30am and one at 2.30pm.

All children are making or preparing something to share in the assembly as well as creating an individual poppy for our display in the hall.

Due to fire regulations in the hall, we will only be able to offer 2 spaces per family and it will be first come, first served.

We hope you can join us for this assembly and look forward to seeing you there.

Yours sincerely,

Miss T Lawrence
Headteacher
